(Human values are disappearing among mankind today)

“Human values are disappearing among mankind today”- an important and relevant topic, especially in today's day and age, was the motion for The Inter-house Under-16 Hindi Debate-2023, organised by the Hindi Department. Two participants from each house had taken part with full enthusiasm and presented the audience with eight interesting perspectives and opinions on the topic. The competition began with a quick briefing on the rules by the moderators Arnima Mishra and Aaryan Sawant. Sarthak Makhamale was the time keeper. The contestants offered strong arguments with clever perspectives. Each participant expressed their views either for or against the topic. After the formal introduction of the judges, the debate commenced with the fully charged debaters speaking confidently and convincingly. After the debaters presented their opinions, the eminent judges addressed the students and gave them their valuable feedback.

Though all the Houses did their best, Freese House came out with flying colours and secured the First position, followed by Lunn, Cooper and Roberts House. In the individual category, Akul Pandey from the Lunn House was declared the Best Speaker while Abhijeet Roy from the Roberts House and Krish Kumar from the Freese House shared the Runners-up position.

The judges and our school Heads congratulated all the participants at the end of the debate. Swayam Bhardwaj from class 8-F presented the vote of thanks. The debate was an enlightening and enriching experience both for the participants, as well as the audience. Overall, it was not only an educative, but also a breath-taking event and everyone present there took back treasured thoughts about values and the humankind.
