

THE BISHOP'S SCHOOL, CAMP

PRE - PRIMARY SECTION

SESSION 1 AND 2

INTERCLASS ENGLISH ELOCUTION

"The stage is a canvas, and children, with their words, paint the most vibrant pictures of imagination and expression."

The art of public speaking is the art of giving power to words - to influence, inspire, and transform lives. The Interclass English Elocution Competition held at the Pre-Primary Section on Monday, 06th November 2023 gave a good opportunity to allow the students to connect with the audience with great zeal and to confidently showcase their remarkable oratory skills.

Group:

Both the classes, the Lower Kindergarten and the Upper Kindergarten participated in the Interclass Elocution Competition. The Group Elocution Competition was not just a showcase of public speaking skills; it emphasized the importance of teamwork, mutual respect, and the art of effective communication.

In essence, the Group Elocution Competition was a symphony of voices coming together, echoing the beauty of collaboration and emphasizing the profound impact of united efforts in the art of public speaking.

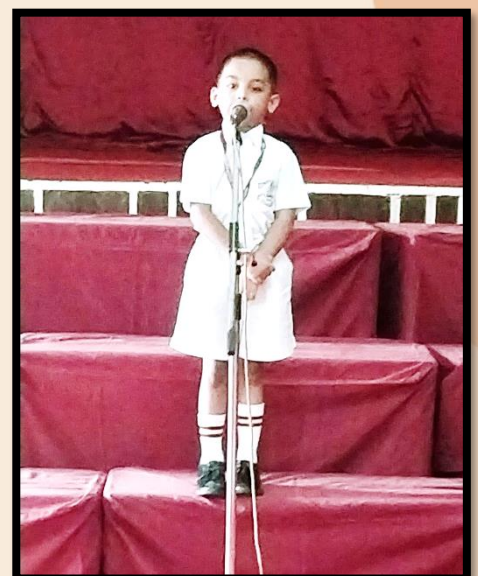

In a display of eloquence and confidence, the winners were rightfully declared. Upper Kindergarten D stood out and secured victory in their category, while Lower Kindergarten E displayed exceptional speaking abilities, claiming triumph in their segment of the competition.

Individual :

An individual Elocution competition was organized as well. A student from each section of class Upper Kindergarten participated. The students demonstrated commendable poise and articulation, captivating the audience with their expressive delivery and engaging presentations. The individual talents and speaking abilities of our students were celebrated as they served as a testament to the importance of cultivating confidence, preparing them for the challenges of expressing themselves eloquently in various facets of life.

The winner of the Individual Elocution Competition was Tirthan Roy from the class of Upper Kindergarten A (Second Session).

The competitions were judged under the watchful eyes of our esteemed judges, Mrs. Milka Thomas and Ms. Riya Thorat. Overall, the Elocution Competition was a great success, celebrating the innate abilities of our young learners and nurturing their confidence in public speaking. Such events play an integral role in shaping the holistic development of our students, encouraging them to express themselves with clarity and conviction. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the winners and express gratitude to all the participants, judges and teachers who contributed to the success of this engaging and enriching event.
