REPORT ON THE PICNIC TO IMAGICA

Every picnic is a new adventure

The Bishop's Co-Ed School, Undri organised a picnic to Imagica- A Theme Park, for the Junior College on Tuesday 31st January, 2023. The students reported to school at 7:30 A.M, boarded the buses, and headed for Imagica.

The students were all set to have a fantastic day with their friends and teachers. They brought the buses to life, singing and dancing merrily. They were served snacks during the journey. Delicious breakfast was served at 10:30 A.M, after reaching the venue.

The most electrifying rides were the Nitro, Scream machine, Rajasauras, Dare to Drop and Deep space. With a dash of adventure and a jolt of adrenaline, every unique ride was enjoyed by all.

Photographs were enthusiastically clicked, capturing the thrill, excitement and joy on the face of each student.

The students were served with delicious lunch after which they continued their rides with gusto.

The special day ended with the students singing and dancing their way home. The day was filled with unforgettable moments and made memories that will last forever.
