

ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOLS FOR INDIAN SCHOOL CERTIFICATE INTER-SCHOOL QUIZ COMPETITION

The Association of Schools for Indian School Certificate (ASISC) Inter-School Quiz Competition, a prestigious intellectual congregation, unfolded at the esteemed Lorna Roberts' Hall within Bishop's School, Camp, Pune, on the 28th of July, 2023. A testament to erudition, the event harmoniously united participants from the Camp, Kalyani Nagar, and Undri branches of The Bishop's School, alongside representatives from St. Mary's School and The Euro School.

Setting a solemn tone, the event commenced with a prayer led by the respected Principal, Mr. Shayne McPherson, infusing an aura of reverence. Prior to this, the event was confidently introduced by the host, Nishka Khosla, who charismatically guided the audience into the proceedings. With Mrs. Pooja Mishra at the helm, adeptly steering as the quiz master, the event unfolded seamlessly.

The intellectual battlefield saw five riveting rounds that skillfully probed the participants' depth of knowledge. The General Awareness and Literacy rounds gauged their cognizance and literary acumen, while the Audio-Visual segment brought knowledge to life. The pulse quickened during the Rapid-Fire round, testing the contestants' reflexive brilliance, and the Buzzer round buzzed with electrifying anticipation. The audience displayed unwavering enthusiasm, remaining avidly engaged throughout.

Moreover, the audience was not mere spectators; the inclusion of questions for them added an interactive and light-hearted dimension to the event. Each query posed was a gateway to enlightenment, enriching both participants and attendees with a spectrum of knowledge. As the event's crescendo approached, The Bishop's School, Undri, emerged as the triumphant victor.

The ASISC Inter-School Quiz Competition, a symphony of intellect and enlightenment, etched an indelible mark on all fortunate witnesses. The dedication of Nishka Khosla, the astute quizmaster Mrs. Pooja Mishra, and the audience intertwined seamlessly, crafting an event that transcended mere competition, delivering a profound sense of enlightenment.
