

THE BISHOP'S CO-ED SCHOOL, UNDRI (JUNIOR COLLEGE)

REPORT ON INTER HOUSE ENGLISH ELOCUTION

"Language is the blood of the soul into which thoughts run and out of which they grow." These are the wise words by the American scholar, Oliver Wendell Holmes.

In keeping with the resonance of the words and the aim of empowering pupils with good oratory skills the Inter-house English Elocution Competition was held in the B4 Hall of The Bishop's Co-Ed School Undri for Junior College on the 11th of November 2022. The event was judged by the erudite judges, Mrs. Gulnar Mistry from The Bishop's School, Camp and Mrs. Ankita Sawhney from Bishop's School, Kalayninagar.

The event commenced with the elucidation of the rules. The participants were given the theme of 'Dramatic Monologue'. Some factors adjudged during the competition were presentation, pronunciation, articulation, expression, usage of props and choice of content.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic preparation and participation of students. There was representation of four different houses which consisted of two main and two stand-by fervent participants. We also had an enthusiastic audience of the students from class XI and XII as they watched the participants try their oratory skills.

The participants were showered with a mammoth appreciation from the Headmaster, Mr. Ralph Russell, the Junior College Co-ordinator, Dr. Mrs. Ulfat Baig and the Judges.

Before the declaration of the results, the audience gathered the pearls of wisdom out of the judges. The result was announced by the headmaster which the audience and the participants waited with bated breath. Wintle House won the first position. The second position was secured by Rae House. Vedant Poduval of Class XII 'A' Arts from the Wintle House bagged the Best Speaker's award.

Overall House Position:

| | |
|--------------------------|--------------|
| 1 st Position | Wintle House |
| 2 nd Position | Rae House |
| 3 rd Position | Young House |

All winners were extolled for creating a brilliant ambience. The event culminated with a vote of thanks.
