“Creativity is a wild mind and a disciplined eye.”

The burgeoning litterateurs, Deethi Gandhi and Mohammad Zeeshanul Haque of The Bishop's Co-Ed School, Undri stepped into the enchanting world of literary magic on the 10th of October 2023. The 21st All India Hope Talent Contest in Art and Essay Writing unfolded its pages of imagination and sought to weave tales, spark fancies, and dance with words. Ink flowed like the river of dreams, carrying the stories of audacious participants. The magical soirée was graced by the presence of literary luminaries, who sprinkled their fairy dust on the festivities.

Participants cast their spells on paper and traversed the enchanted realm of 'Historical Events' on the topic – 'A significant Historical Event that has impacted my life'. In a fantastical journey, participants unveiled the hidden worlds of creativity and navigated through the secret doorways of artistry, thereby allowing a kaleidoscope of literary explosion.

Deethi Gandhi of Class XII brought a unique perspective to the competition infusing her work with a blend of literary styles that left an indelible mark on both judges and fellow participants. The winning entry transported readers to the historical epoch where the narrative unfolded like a tapestry of emotions. She was awarded a Gold Medal.

Mohammad Zeeshanul Haque of Class XI delved into the themes of historical fiction, offering readers a thought-provoking journey through characters' experiences and subtle plot twists. The depth of exploration and the nuance of expression showcased his keen insight into the human experience. He was conferred a Gold Medal.

Participants, having tasted the nectar of creative revelry, offered wondrous insights for future magical rendezvous. In the end, the quills rested and the inkwells sighed contentedly promising to weave the spell of words in future.
