

ANTI-NARCOTICS AWARENESS WORKSHOP

“Life is a matter of choices, and every choice you make, makes you.” - (John C.Maxwell)

On account of the Anti-Narcotics week, the Bishop's School, Camp hosted the narcotics department of the Pune Police on 28th July 2023. It aimed to bring about awareness of the proscribed use of drugs and their harm to society.

The event commenced with the Dean of the Junior College, Ms Madhu Hora briefing the audience about the event. Shortly, the staff and students of the junior college welcomed A.C.P. R N Raje and Sr. PI Shri Shashikant Chavan of the Lashkar Department of the city's police force.

He started off by assuring the students that the police fraternity is not one to fear but one to feel comfortable around.

Consequently, the students were shown a video highlighting the effects of drugs and how they lead to self-harm and self-negligence. He spoke about causes of drug-dependence as stress, ignorance, peer pressure, and alienation. They were also shown a presentation explaining the different kinds of drugs and reinstating that 'drug abuse should be an absolute no for all.'

The Vice Head Girl, Aarushi Warriar delivered the vote of thanks concluding the session. The students took back the strong message that they must not be influenced by the evils that prevail in society.
