Thank you teacher for guiding us, inspiring us
And making us what we are today.*

Happy Teachers Day Celebrations

“Teachers can change lives with just the right mix of chalk and challenges”

Every year, the birth anniversary of Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan on the 5th of September is celebrated as Teachers’ Day in India.

Bishop’s has always valued and appreciated its teachers and the many efforts they take to make their students’ education easier.

Therefore this Teachers’ Day, the students of The Bishop’s School and Junior College, Camp took the opportunity to express their gratitude towards all the educators by arranging a small programme for them as a token of appreciation for their hard work.

The event, which was spearheaded by the Junior College, was held on Thursday, 8th of September 2022 in the Lorna Roberts Auditorium for the entire staff of the school to witness.

The programme was opened by the anchors of the event, Joshua Peter and Ira Bhosale, who gave a warm welcome to all the teachers and heads of the school present.

Everyone was then led into a word of prayer by Meghna Mallik. Thereafter the Principal and Honorary Secretary, Mr Edwin gave an address to the audience and proceeded to felicitate Mr Ramesh Bendre and Mr Bose N V who were awarded for their services to the school. Mr.Edwin was then felicitated by one of the organizing team members, Urvi Gurav.

A jovial atmosphere was set up in the hall after Aanya Tejwani and Bryan Lobo came dressed up as mock lecturers for the day. Providing the teachers with an entirely fresh perspective on what it truly felt like to be in their classroom, they filled the hall with roars of laughter and amusement.

Later on, the dancers took to the stage to demonstrate their moves on the popular pop renditions of today as well as the pop hits of the '70s and '90s and received heaps of cheers and applauses from the audience as they lit up the stage with their rhythmic choreography.

Playing out to be a fun-filled segment, it generated some very amusing responses from the audience as they tried guessing the mysterious items.

The next bit of the program was a game titled 'What's In the Box.' Conducted by the anchors, the game involved an audience member coming up and putting their hand through the arm-holes on either side of the box and guessing what was in it. The game generated

Afterwards, 'Tea Time Therapy', a skit written by Perna Daswani and Irisha Adhikari was performed. The play, set up to be a therapy session, offered up an interesting take on the teachers of today and delivered plenty of relatable and comical moments from the actors.

Tarang Rathi then took the stage to conduct a trivia game called 'The Hunger Games', which was based upon the popular Indian television show 'Kaun Banega Crorepati'. Quizzing the teachers on a variety of topics, the segment turned out to be one of the highlights of the program with many eager teachers volunteering to answer the questions as their students would, on a pop quiz.

The teachers were then presented with a video message prepared by the alumni of the school who reminisced the fond memories they had created with them.

In the last bit of it, The Junior College band took to the stage to perform the songs 'Let It Be' by The Beatles and 'Yellow' by Coldplay and drew the program to a perfect end with their talented performances.

The Vote of Thanks concluding the event was delivered by the Head Boy, Mohammed Rajkotwala and the Vice Head Girl, Savni Apte.

The event, therefore, prospered at what it set out to achieve and so much more. Leaving all the teachers in high spirits by the end, it was the perfect way of saying 'thank you for all the unstinted guidance and inspiration that the teachers offer to the students.'
