CLASSES VI, VII & VIII

"Don't let your voice sound like all the other noises. Be loud, be clear and make a difference!" - Mary Riesberg

The Inter-House English Elocution competition for classes VI, VII and VIII was held on 22nd April, 2024. The event was graced with the presence of our Principal, Mr. Luke and Headmaster, Mr. Russell.

The programme began with a welcome speech by Roselle Soares followed by a word of prayer by Mr. Godfrey. The judges for the elocution were welcomed. The panel of judges included Ms. Celine Littlewood (Middle School English Teacher at The Bishop's School, Camp) and Mrs. Alka Choudhari (Middle School English Teacher at The Bishop's Co-Ed School, Kalyani Nagar).

The main and stand by participants for the competition were introduced and were also apprised of the judging criteria, which included clarity, diction, pronunciation, presentation, articulation and expression.

The event commenced with Round 1- Poetry conducted by Mohammed Ali Khan followed by Round 2- Prose conducted by Shaurya Sancheti and Round 3- Prose conducted by Mariya Rajkotwala. It was indeed astounding to see the participants perform exceptionally well, winning accolades for their house. The competition gave a lot of encouragement and confidence to the participants and to all the students present there.

The young and gifted orators came forth with a wide variety of humorous, serious and intellectual poem and prose pieces. The pieces like Every Cat In The Twilight's Grey, We Don't Eat Our Classmates by Ryan T Higgins, My Financial Career and Sarah Cynthia Sylvia Stout by Shel Silverstein were outstanding.

The judges were overwhelmed by the oratory skills and applauded the hard work put in by the participants. They congratulated them for their excellent performance.

This was followed by a few words of encouragement by our Headmaster, Mr. Russell and the declaration of the results, amidst thunderous applauding. The event culminated with a vote of thanks by Mehr Khan to all who made this event possible and a success.
