CLASS 5

THE INTERCLASS ELOCUTION COMPETITION

"Tell me and I forget. Teach me and I remember. Involve me and I learn." – Benjamin Franklin

The annual Interclass Elocution Competition – Group and Individual Category, held on the 16th and 17th of October, was a resounding success, highlighting the incredible talent and enthusiasm of the young students of Classes 1 to 5 of The First Session and The Second Session at The Harding Hall. It was a culmination of weeks of preparation and practice.

In the Group Elocution Competition, the entire class had to recite a poem. As usual it was a pleasure to watch our smart children conduct themselves in such a disciplined manner and render the enjoyable poems enthusiastically. The event organized by the Co-ordinators and the class teachers, aimed at honing the public speaking skills of our students and instilling confidence.

The winners for the Group Elocution Competition and the poems they recited-:

Class – 1	IC	'My Senses'	Anonymous
Class – 2	IID	'Daddy Fell Into The Pond' by Alfred Noyes
	IIE	'Mr. Whisper' by Kenn Nesbitt
Class – 3	IIIA	'Woooo' by Nancy M Hayes
Class – 4	IVB	'Colonel Fazackerley Butterworth - Toast' by Charles Causley
Class – 5	VD	'The Rock And The Bubble' by Louisa May Alcott

Individual Category: The students of each section from classes 1 to 4 of The First Session and The Second Session and Class 5 Second Session, recited a poem. The performances of the young elocutionists were remarkable, with each participant showcasing their unique way of expressing their love for literature.

Class 5 students delivered oratorical speeches on various topics like, 'Knowledge is Power', 'Honesty is the best Policy' and so on. The class 5 students displayed an in-depth understanding of the subject matter and expressed ideas and thoughts about their topics quite clearly and convincingly.

It was an enriching experience for both the participants and the audience. It provided a platform for our young students to express themselves, develop their public speaking skills, and gain confidence.

The judges had a tough time selecting the winners, as the competition was incredibly fierce.

Individual Competition – Classwise Winners

Class 1E – Viansh Jain who recited ‘My Big Fat Cat’ by Christian M. Mitewu

Class 2B – Samanvay Kapoor who recited ‘Lunch Box Love Note’ by Ken Nesbitt

Class 3B - Mohd. Suhan Khan who recited the poem ‘My Hand Was In The Cookie Jar’ by Dave Crawley

Class 4A – Parth Mutha who recited ‘Excuses, Excuses’ by Gareth Owen

Class 5D – Ibrahim Poonawala whose topic for the Oratorical Speech was ‘Unity Is Strength’.

The Interclass Elocution Competition and Individual Competition showcased the exceptional talent and confidence of our students. The event not only helped students improve their public speaking skills but also encouraged them to research, express, and voice their thoughts on important topics.
